

Colin Hanlon is an American television, theater actor, teacher, director and writer. He plays Steven on Modern Family and has had guest starring roles on The Sinner, Difficult People and The Good Fight. He produced and starred as Tim Trull on the hit webseries Submissions Only. On Broadway/Tour he's been seen in RENT, Falsettos, In Transit and Wicked. Off Broadway he originated in Colman Domingo's DOT (Vineyard Theater), director Susan Stroman and A.R. Gurney's last play Final Follies (Cherry Lane), director David Saint. He was in the original Off-Broadway casts of Pirates of Penzance, I Love You Because and Next Thing You Know (available on Spotify). As an actor in NYC he's helped develop over 200 new plays and musicals.